

Third District Honoree

Lindsey P. Horvath

*Mayor Pro Tempore
City of West Hollywood*

Lindsey P. Horvath is the Mayor Pro Tempore of the West Hollywood City Council. Councilmember Horvath has a long history of civic and social justice advocacy and has spearheaded policies to make West Hollywood an “Age-Friendly Community” to better serve residents of all ages. She is widely known for her leadership on women’s issues and has served as a Global Coordinator for One Billion Rising, a global campaign of the V-Day movement to end violence against women and girls.

Councilmember Horvath created the first-ever West Hollywood Community Response Team to Domestic Violence. She is a champion of LGBTQ+ rights, and initiated City policies to support workers, including paid family leave, student loan debt relief, and transition guidelines for the workplace to provide a supportive working environment for transgender people. On the West Hollywood Women's Advisory Board, she focused on issues facing women and families and collaborated with community leaders and organizations in successfully advocating for the full funding of the backlog of untested rape kit evidence in the City and County of Los Angeles.

Councilmember Horvath is a member of numerous boards and is a founder of the Hollywood National Organization for Women. She is the recipient of countless recognitions, including the Morris Kight Presidential Award and Girl Power Community Leadership Award. In addition to speaking annually at the Women’s March Los Angeles, she has also created award-winning campaigns for movies and television as a creative advertising executive.

Councilmember Horvath graduated Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Gender Studies from the University of Notre Dame.
